service is furnished under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 11, 1919.

is furnished primarily for historical and statistical purposes, although it may be used in adjudicating where the law is solely concerned. It is not to be used before a court of justice or in support of any claim against the Government. The law prohibits the furnishing of any information that may be used in the prosecution of a claim except to the proper Government officials.

This information is furnished to individuals, other than historians and statisticians, for information from this statement of service where the applicant is directed to apply for the information to The Adjutant General of the Army, who is the custodian of the records of the Armies of the United States. Exceptions to this rule may be made in the case of official historical societies and associations when it is known positively that the information is to be used exclusively for historical purposes, and will not be made public nor communicated to any individual who may use it directly or indirectly in the prosecution of, or a claim against the Government, or to the injury of the soldier.

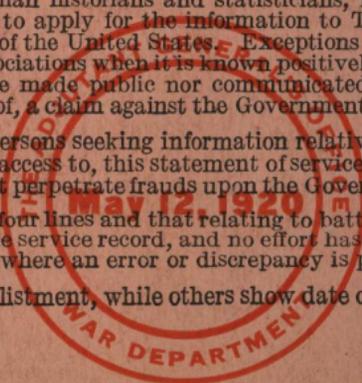

Where not previously provided, all persons seeking information relative to the military and medical histories of the individual, or access to, this statement of service, as otherwise information legally unobtainable, shall be furnished to persons who might perpetrate frauds upon the Government, or who might seek to injure the soldier.

Information contained on the first four lines and that relating to battle casualties and physical disability, this statement is derived from the service record, and no effort has been made to compare the data obtained from other records, except where an error or discrepancy is patent.

The entries on the papers show age at enlistment, while others show date of birth. The entries recorded herein are in the original enlistment paper.
