On August 28th., 1922 the original 724-2 $\frac{1}{2}$  card originally received from the War Department was returned to them in compliance with 2nd. Indorsement dated August 9th., 1922. The original card showed an address of 1106 Center St., Lansing, Michigan and the claim was paid Feb. 18, 1922 as per stamp. It appears that the War Department is wrong in changing the address of this card because it is known to members of the Bonus Division that this man was actually a resident of Lansing before entering the service. And it is noted that the last section of Par. 1 of above Indorsement states that they have changed his address because of statements on his enlistment paper which did not agree with his service record.
