System Maintenance: CEPI Applications and MI School Data

CEPI applications and MI School Data will be intermittently offline for maintenance on Sunday, Jan. 2 from 6 a.m. to noon EST. Only limited informational inquires will be available during this time.

Reminder: CEPI Website Changes

As previously communicated, the State of Michigan is in the process of changing to a new website content management system. While the content will mostly remain the same, the site's look will change.

Welcome!

CEPI is proud to serve as the agency responsible for collecting, securely managing, and reporting education data in Michigan.

Whether you're a parent looking for the best fit for your child, a member of the education community seeking data to inform your practices, a policymaker or researcher evaluating our state's education policies, or simply a Michigan citizen seeking transparent and unbiased information on how our schools and students are performing, CEPI is eager to help with your information needs.

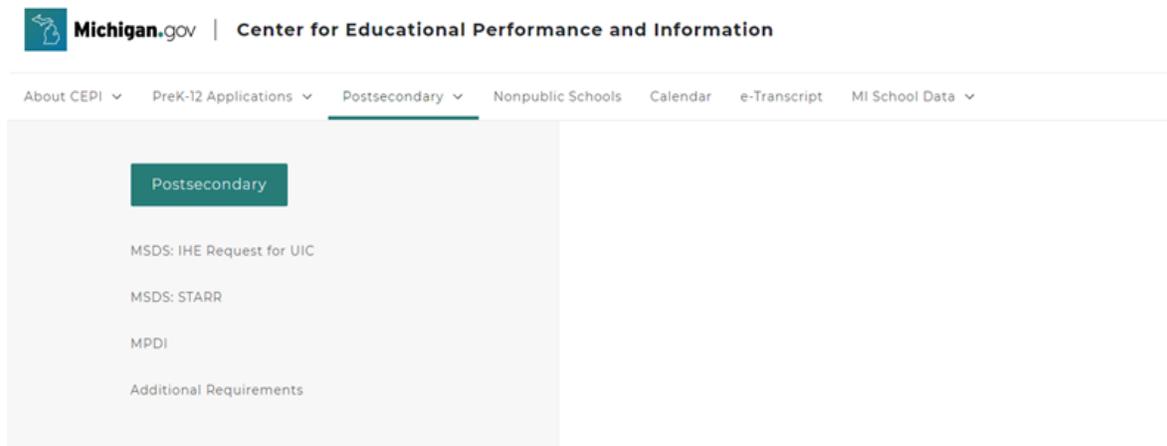

Tom Howell, Director
Center for Educational Performance and Information

Log in to CEPI Applications

Public users don't need a login to see CEPI's education data. Visit MI School Data or click Get Data to learn more about Michigan's students and schools.

Authorized users can access CEPI applications to submit and review their data through the State of Michigan's MILogin system. New users can review the links below for help getting started.

We are still reviewing and configuring the new site, so there may be slight changes between now (pictured above and below) and when the site goes live.

Another message will be sent when we have a firm go-live date.

Updated IHE Request for UIC Collection Resources Available

The updated schema, sample file, schema summary and component spreadsheets have been posted for the 2021-22 IHE Request for UIC Collection.

Please see the Nov. 3 issue of the IHE Announcements for additional information.
