

of the payment of their debts, and then having retained some small reservations. It is impossible for me to conceive that either of these objections shows
'course any thing, beyond the political bearing of the question above referred to.

I shall leave this the moment I can, but as my movement depends on the action of others, it is impossible to say when I can leave.

Very truly
Yours, W. H. Hunt,

Wm. R. Schoolcraft

impossible to say when I can leave.

Very truly
Yours, W. H. Hunt,

Henry R. Schoolcraft

Samuel Combs

Miss H. has a letter from a Mr Taylor, a respectable young man of the Cherokee delegation, being one fourth Cherokee.